“Ho, ho, ho” from BalticShop!

We're sending you our new 2007 - 2008 Winter catalog to help you with your Holiday shopping. Find one-of-a-kind gifts for everyone, saving time by ordering directly online or by phone. We've added to our selection of unique Baltic jewelry in silver and amber, as well as collections in gold. Our newly-found “Baltic gem” - authentic Lithuanian jewelry by one of the few silversmiths in all of Lithuania who specialize in crafting archaeological reproductions. For those who collect art books, we have a fantastic new anthology on the famous Estonian-Swedish illustrator Ilon Wikland. And, for those special holiday feasts, BalticShop's selection of rye bread has also expanded to include the popular Latvian Rye bread with hazelnuts and dried apricots, as well as a hearty and tasty carrot-rye bread.

The spectrum of products that we offer from each Baltic country directly reflects our customer base. Although you may currently notice more pages with Latvian goods, we would be delighted to have just as many for Estonians and Lithuanians - help us spread the word!

Wishing you and yours a Very Merry Christmas,
- the folks at BalticShop

LATVIAN FOLK COSTUMES

Latvian Folk Costumes and Accessories

Even though a small country, the spectrum of variety of Latvia's folk costumes is staggering. Here we can only show you a small sampling, but through Balticshop you can order virtually any of the hundreds of documented folk costumes – for adults and children. We work with workshops such as ANVI AM SIA to provide custom-fit, 100% authentic costumes and accessories fashioned from pure wool and linen. Since the price and availability of each costume component depends on size, as well as complexity and nature of the chosen material, all folk costume orders must be placed individually at BalticShop (see back cover for phone info or www.BalticShop.com).

The film presents the Latgale region pre-war independent Latvia in the beautiful countryside, traditions, songs, strong Catholic faith and original dialect. In the course of the film the boy Boņuks grows emotionally into a man. This process is seen from an unusual angle - through the boy's love for a grown-up young woman who jokingly calls him "her little boyfriend". She could not imagine that the boy would take it so seriously. She has a real fiancée and a wedding is planned. The film is a mixture of the comic and the dramatic.

Format: PAL (European), soundtrack is available in English, French, Latvian

Traditional crocheted pieces, like the snowflakes used for background images throughout the catalogue, or our snow Angels for sale on page 18, are one of the many timeless crafts passed on from generation to generation. Each snowflake in the catalogue is unique- and was created by Mrs. Alma Zvaners, who spent her later years in Minnesota. She would never sell them, but only give them as gifts. As a young married woman, however, Alma Zvaners did go to the market to sell farm fresh goods from her family homestead. All the way from Pededze to Alūksne- on the Northeastern side of Latvia- she would lead the carriage and horses herself!

If you want to send your relatives in Latvia a special holiday treat, but can't get to the local market yourself, BalticShop will do the shopping for you! We have put together a gift basket with gourmet goodies from various well-known Latvian vendors, including: local cheeses, fresh fruit, smoked salmon, and Laima chocolates (see item specifics above for complete contents). If you don't want to leave your friends and relatives in the US out in the cold, we offer a smaller version on page 34, item #15. Enjoy!

Made in Latvia Gourmet Food Basket (large), approx. 14.5 lbs., LV, #3734, $110
