

INTRODUCTION

Wishing You Happy Summer Holidays from Balticshop!

Summer brings us Solstice, weddings, graduations and confirmations- and of course- Song Festivals!

This summer we celebrate the national Latvian Song Festival, held once every five years. But, Latvians are not alone in their love of music. The tradition of song reaches across the Baltics, appreciated by everyone. Be sure to check out the selection of music CDs, previous Song Festival DVDs, and other traditional lore featured in the central pages of the 2008 Summer Catalogue.

In this issue we also feature gift selections for everyone on your summer shopping list- be it Mom, Dad, or graduate. Whether that would be a memorable piece of unique amber jewelry, an official team soccer shirt, or a box of must-have chocolates; Balticshop offers a great variety of ideas for anyone on your list. Running out of time? This last Holiday season we implemented our new gift announcements- which we provide so that you can let someone know that something good is on its way!

Please visit us at www.balticshop.com.

If you have any questions, please contact us at info@balticshop.com or by calling 1 - 800 - 506 - 2313

We look forward to hearing from you!

Sveiks, Sveikas, Tervist
from everyone at Balticshop

Since time immemorial the Balts (as well as the ancient Greeks) have believed that the natural warmth of amber has healing properties when worn against the skin. Something to keep in mind, as if the sheer beauty of this "gem from the sea" isn't already enough!

Silver Jewelry

According to archeological excavations, the women and men of the ancient Baltic and Finno-Ugric tribes living along the Baltic Seacoast adorned themselves considerably with jewelry. The earliest examples were made of amber, seashells, bone and copper, with the addition of silver and gold in later centuries. We continue the tradition today, displaying our Baltic roots by wearing true reproductions, as well as modern pieces inspired by ethnic motifs.

Happy Summer Celebrations!

What to give that young graduate? We offer silver mobile phone charms- a way to incorporate traditional symbols in our every day life, or, timeless sterling cufflinks and tie clips. For the bride and groom, how about a beautiful leather bound book for their wedding images or as a guest book for their new home? And of course, Mother's Day and Father's Day gifts, which could be as ornate as an amber inlayed letter opener, or as fun as a game of Monopoly (see page 33)! Each page offers many unique ideas for the summer celebrations ahead.

Latvian Folk Costumes and Accessories

Even though a small country, the spectrum of variety of Latvia's folk costumes is staggering. Here we can only show you a small sampling, but through Balticshop you can order virtually any of the hundreds of documented folk costumes – for adults and children. We work with workshops such as ANVI AM SIA to provide custom-fit, 100% authentic costumes and accessories fashioned from pure wool and linen. Since the price and availability of each costume component depends on size, as well as complexity and nature of the chosen material, all folk costume orders must be placed individually at BalticShop (see back cover for phone info or www.BalticShop.com).

This new translation of Uldis Ģermanis legendary "The Latvian Saga" is the first English-language history to tell the full story of the Latvian people in a way all can understand. It presents history, but reads like a novel. It describes the peoples, powers and events that made Latvias what it is today, and puts it all in a broader European context. Completed in 1958, it inspired several generations of Latvians to dedicate their lives to the restoration of Latvia's independence in 1991. This special expanded edition of Ģermanis powerful book features new full color maps and photographs, as well as a supplementary section by Latvia's former Ambassador to the United States, Ojārs Kalniņš, which brings the history of Latvia up to date our present era.

Lithuanian books in ENGLISH:

- 1 Welcome to the Baltic States - Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, in English, hardcover, 95 p., 8-3/8" x 8-3/8", #12058, $38

The three Baltic States: Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia, similar in terms of their size, national song festivals and a shared historical period of Soviet occupation, are in fact quite different and distinct countries. Although the coasts of all three are washed by the same cold and splashing waters of the Baltic Sea, the landscapes as well as architecture, traditions, cultural heritage and religions differ significantly between these countries. Each of them needs to be explored individually, although the taste of discovery often depends on the hunger as well as on the knowledge and willingness of the explorer. What western countries have lost a long time ago, still exists here, and what has become mundane there, is still undiscovered here. The Baltic States offer so many unique places that it would be a sin not to see them, and once you are here, you are attempted to take at least a little piece of them back home: in souvenirs, in photos or in your heart...

- 2 Nijolė Strakauskaitė, Klaipėda Curonian Spit Königsberg, paperback, 214 p., 8-1/2" x 5", #11842, $29

This guide covers a small part of two contemporary states: the coast of the Curonian Lagoon, the Curonian Spit and Klaipėda (Lithuania), and the Baltic seacoast, the coast of the Curonian Lagoon, and Königsberg in the Kaliningrad region (Russia). It provides plenty of historical material, information about monuments of culture, history and landscape. Illustrated with approximately 500 contemporary and archival photographs, the guide contains site maps with indicated locations of the described objects.

New Moon Morning

Kristiina Ehin is the latest in a long line of great Estonian women poets stretching far back into the folk tradition. This oral tradition lives on in Kristiina's work, in which she weaves Finno-Ugric mythology and folklore into her very contemporary poetry, thereby creating uncommonly striking patterns of sound and image. Her poetry spans centuries, millennia- it is at once modern and primeval.
