

INTRODUCTION

Once upon a time, we found ourselves surrounded with beautiful objects from around the Baltic, and we decided to share them with people around the world! Amber jewelry, hand-carved wooden spoons, true dark rye bread- and the latest music to boot. The response has been wonderful! Each holiday, you order the gifts for the people you love, and of course, a little something for yourself...

This year, we are offering a merry new mix of the items you love, along with some new mix-it-up favorites! Share your Baltic world this season, with something special for everyone on your list: our popular Crocheted Angels are only $12 (back cover); a cute tin of Milk Toffee (Piena Gotinas) is only $9 (page 35). While we offer Collections of jewelry in gold, our handmade jewelry starts at only $30, offering something truly unique for friends and family alike.

We've kept things simple. You can call us directly or order online. And since we can't possibly put it all in the catalogue, there is always more on the web! Go to www.balticshop.com for 2009 calendars as they come in, along with holiday cards, gift baskets, and even subscriptions to magazines.

May the Season bring you to a magical place with the people you love, and gifts of comfort and style to reflect the love you have for Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania. Merry Baltic to all, and to all a good night...

Wishing you Peace and Joy this Holiday Season!
Your friends at BalticShop

SILVER JEWELRY

According to archeological excavations, the women and men of the ancient Baltic and Finno-Ugric tribes living along the Baltic Seacoast adorned themselves considerably with jewelry. The earliest examples were made of amber, seashells, bone and copper, with the addition of silver and gold in later centuries. We continue the tradition today, displaying our Baltic roots by wearing true reproductions, as well as modern pieces inspired by ethnic motifs.

1 Latvia - The Land We Love, in Latvian and in English, hardcover, 95 p., 12" x 9", LV, #5336, $68
 Latvians consider themselves a singing nation. Songs were sung while working in the fields as well as to praise the sun and the new harvest. Still today, Latvian folklore - folk songs, legends, fairy-tales, riddles and proverbs - is held in high esteem.

2 Art Nouveau Riga. Illustrated Guide, paperback, 32 p., 9-1/2" x 6-5/8", LV, #5356, $15
 This book presents an overview of many beautiful Art Nouveau houses in Riga. It includes not only Old Riga and Albert Street but also districts that are located off the traditional tourist routes.

3 Latvia during the Second World War, J.Straume, paperback, 48 p., 8" x 9", LV, #5330, $10
 A detailed look at Latvia's most tragic era in modern history- the 1940s- when Latvia was occupied by both Soviet and Nazi forces, and was illegally annexed into the Soviet Union for the next 50 years.

4 Old Riga, Illustrated Guide, paperback, 32 p., 9-1/2" x 6-5/8", LV, #5149, $12
 Over the course of eight centuries, Riga, the capital of Latvia, developed from a small settlement to a large metropolis with a population of nearly one million. This book provides a thorough look at the very heart of the city, where on the banks of the Daugava River lies the historic Old Town, with buildings and landmarks dating back over the span of these eight hundred years.

5 The Latvian Saga by Uldis Ģermanis, paperback, 260 p., 9" x 5-1/2", LV, #5164, $32
 This new translation of Uldis Ģermanis' legendary "The Latvian Saga" is the first English-language history to tell the full story of the Latvian people in a way all can understand. It presents history, but reads like a novel. It describes the peoples, powers and events that made Latvias what it is today, and puts it all in a broader European context. Completed in 1958, it inspired several generations of Latvians to dedicate their lives to the restoration of Latvia's independence in 1991. This special expanded edition of Ģermanis' powerful book features new full color maps and photographs, as well as a supplementary section by Latvia's former Ambassador to the United States, Ojārs Kalniņš, which brings the history of Latvia up to date our present era.

7 Noorkuu hommik (New Moon Morning) by Kristiina Ehin, in Estonian and English, 128 pages, 8 1/2" x 5", #30741, $26

Kristiina Ehin is the latest in a long line of great Estonian women poets stretching far back into the folk tradition. This oral tradition lives on in Kristiina's work, in which she weaves Finno-Ugric mythology and folklore into her very contemporary poetry, thereby creating uncommonly striking patterns of sound and image. Her poetry spans centuries, millennia- it is at once modern and primeval.

1 Iļģi, Ej tu dejoj, 21 folk songs, traditional, #5245, $18

2 Ne uz vienu dienu (Not For Just One Day), Iļģi, 12 traditional wedding songs, #3975, $15

3 Ilža, 20 songs and dances sung in Latgalian, traditional, #5246, $16
The group "Ilža" took its name from a river that runs through Cibla, a little town near Ludza, which is located in Latgale. Latgale's culture differs from the rest of Latvia as it historically has been a Catholic dominated region and still today has preserved a particular dialect and a rich heritage - songs, dances and traditions.

8 Vairas dziesmas, 11 folk songs, traditional, #5296, $16

V. Viķe-Freiberga comments on this recording: "Every person has a few favorite songs, some maybe learned in childhood, others associated with a particular occasion or person, or songs that hold special meaning for us because of the emotions that they evoke. In days gone by people made a point of deliberately accumulating a personal "chestful" or "basketful" of "their" own special folk songs. I agree with this position that everyone should have such a personal repertoire."
Through her scientific research and publications about Latvian folk songs Prof. Vaira Viķe-Freiberga has helped both Latvians and those of other cultures to better understand Latvian traditional culture and its values. From 1999 to 2007 Vaira Viķe-Freiberga held the position of President of Latvia, during which time she actively worked towards the democratization of the country and the strengthening of its legal basis. She also successfully implemented Latvia's foreign policy interests and raised the nation's recognition in the world.
